

Keeshond Club of Southern California, Inc.

Application for Membership

The Keeshond Club of Southern California is a friendly and active organization devoted to the greater interest and betterment of the breed and the promotion of good sportsmanship. You will find other proud owners among the members, sincere and experienced breeders and handlers who are always happy to help you.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in KCSC is available to persons in good standing with the American Kennel Club who subscribe to the objectives of the Keeshond Club of So. California. There are three types of membership: Regular membership, open to persons eighteen years of age and older; Associate membership, available to persons eighteen years of age and older; and Junior membership, open to persons ten through seventeen years of age. Junior Members and Associate Members enjoy full membership privileges with the exception of voting and holding offices. Associate Membership is for those people who want to belong to the club, but who will probably be unable to attend meetings often.

MEETINGS

Club meetings are usually held monthly, often at conformation show sites after Keeshond judging. Notices between meetings are distributed through email or by phone for those people without email.
